

- God sent his son Jesus to die on the cross and be raised from the grave to forgive us our sins and offer the gift of salvation so that we might have abundant and eternal life. He did not have to do this for us, but He did so out of amazing love and mercy because He wants to forgive us and bring us into His family to live with Him according to His original plan for the world.
- God loves us and wants the best for us. Our sin keeps us from having a personal relationship with God. Christ died to take the penalty that our sins deserve. He did not stay dead. He rose from the grave. When we respond with belief and trust in Christ, we receive Him as Savior and Lord. No one can be good enough for a perfect God on our own. To enjoy a personal relationship with God, invite Jesus to come into your life and become a new person by His love and mercy. (John 3:16)
- The gospel is the good news that Christ lived a perfect life, died on the cross, and rose from the dead to satisfy God's judgment on the world. Because of Jesus' payment in full for OUR debt, it is now possible for anyone to receive salvation through a living faith in Christ.
- Man can never save himself or become right with God on his own merits, so God sent His Son to die in our place, to pay our debt for sins against Him and set us free from penalty. Jesus rose from the dead to prove that this is true. This offer is for whoever believes in Him. When we believe, Jesus gives us eternal life.
